

ASGB October Meeting Minutes
Sunday, October 21, 2007

Welcome new member Jeannie Cox

Old business:

Acceptance of October's meeting minutes

New Business:

$20.00 Dues payments are due

The group voted unanimously to host the Japanese Artists for the MAC glass workshops in February, comments were made about the need to check on liability insurance.

We still have plenty of calendars to sell for Beads of Courage. Now, before the holidays hit, is the perfect time to do it.

Special Events:

Adiel Garrison suggested forming a committee to brainstorm special events.

Education:

The Education position is still open. The idea to also form an education committee was brought up. Michelle Parchinski offered to be a part of that committee.

The group discussed possible places to hold workshops

Bead Challenge/Exchange: Halloween beads

Next Month: Since many members are so busy in November, the bead exchange is to bring one Fall themed bead to exchange.
