

ASGB Meeting Minutes
Sunday, April 19, 2009

Attendees: Celeste Sotomayor, Karen Sherwood, Christine Sutter, Carol Saker, Heather Walterson, Shauna Lamb, Vee Lamb, Triscia Schaffer, Michelle Parchinski, Penny Dickinson, Kiersten Kern, Kathryn Guler, Gail Finney

Old business:

Acceptance of February and March meeting minutes.

Bulk buys are in and were distributed to members present.

If you're interested in purchasing Kumihimo disks and bobbins, check out website:
www.Braidershand.com

New business:

ASGB is collecting the remaining balances for Heather Trimlett's class. This class will include Advanced beadmaking and vessels and is for intermediate and advanced beadmakers. There is one opening for this class. Email Penny if you're interested.

In the future, "Club Night" will be called "ASGB Club".

Next ASGB Club gathering dates (these are informal, fun, get-togethers to support our beadmaking):

Saturday, April 25th from 5 – 10pm at Fire N Friends Z Studio
Penny will not be in attendance as she's taking a workshop at that location all day long. She will notify members whether Diane will be there to keep the studio open or if it will be cancelled.

Saturday, May 2nd - no gathering due to Heather Trimlett's class

Saturday, May 9th 10am – 4pm – Gail Finney's house
2 torches available – bring your annealing bubbles if you have them
Photo cube available – bring your cameras
If you have "garage sale" items, please bring them as well.

Education:

Melanie Moertel www.melaniemoertel.de/ will teach two 2-day advanced beadmaking workshops at Fire & Friends Z Studio. Emphasis will be on stringer control, murrine's, free form shapes & modern floral focals. Cost is approx. $250 - $300 for each 2-day class. Up to 12 students per class and seats are still available.

August 20 & 21 OR

August 22 & 23, 2009.

A $100.00 deposit is due by the next ASGB meeting on May 17th.
