

ASGB Meeting Agenda
Saturday, September 26, 2009 at the Bead Museum

In attendance: Vee & Shauna Lamb, Adiel Garrison, Jeannie Cox, Lisa Hamilton, Candace Mackey, Celeste Sotomayor, Penny Dickinson, Kathryn Guler, Kiersten Kern, Kim Caballero, Cindy Rave, Michelle Parchinski, Kathy Putman

August's minutes were accepted.

Wrap-up on Melanie Moertel & Sara Sally LaGrand's classes:
Both teachers were fun and informative. Melanie's class came up $13 short & Sara Sally LaGrand's Class was $65 short.

Best Bead raffle – several glass artists donated extra beads for ASGB's Best Bead Show Raffles for spring. The fall raffle netted $405.00 after shipping and table expenses. Penny will contact Beads of Courage to see if they want ASGB to buy glass for members to make beads (hearts, butterflies & round beads) with BOC's ½ of the raffle net proceeds or sent them their portion in a check. ASGB's ½ will go towards the ASGB Education Fund.

“A Taste of Art & Wine” October 24 & 25, 2009

Fire & Friends Z Studio – flyers were handed out to place in bead stores & any locations that will attract customers.

October 24 and 25th , 2009 from 10 am to 6pm....Peoria Arizona

Highlights include 20 local artists with displays of their work for sale. Live music and 3 wineries offering wine samples. There will be free samples of food and beverages available. ASGB members will demo purple hearts and other beads to donate to Beads of Courage.

ASGB collected deposits for Heather Trimlett's classes January 22, 23 & 24 (1-day marbles & 2-days buttons) – deposits for this class are now due. If you're interested in this class please email Penny. To date, there are not enough students to make this class, unless more members sign up, this class will be cancelled.

Holiday party plans and election information – Kiersten Kern and Lisa Hamilton has both offered to host the ASGB December 5th, if no one else wants to volunteer. If you are interested in running for an ASGB office, you must declare your intention by the October 18th ASGB meeting. Elections will be held at the November meeting. Penny will email ASGB members a list of officer position descriptions.

Adiel Garrison has contacted Fire & Friends Z Studio & the Mesa Art Center regarding having a Flame Off. We'll be making beads for Beads of Courage. Penny will contact Jean @ BOC to find out what type of beads they need most.

ASGB purchased purple glass for ASGB members to make purple hearts for the Beads of Courage program. Members present at the meeting took glass with them to make hearts. A disbursement form was given to each member who took glass stating the guidelines and expectations for its use.

Kiersten Kern asked that all ASGB members who have a Facebook account become "Fans" of Arizona Society of Glass Beadmakers (ASGB). You can give class reviews and see new photos from our group activities.

Education – a new 2011 class was added to our future class list. Let Penny know if you're interested in one of these sessions. Michael Barley is confirmed to teach 2 – 2 day classes; Jan 28 & 29, 2011 and Jan 30 & 31, 2011 @ $300.00 for each 2 day class.
